WTI and Brent rallied in the month of October due to an improved outlook for demand and on hopes that a rebalancing of the oil market was underway. WTI crude oil closed at $52.64, up 2.1% and Brent crude oil closed at $59.30, up 3.3%.

During the month of October 2017, GCC equity markets closed in mixed territory. UAE indices, Dubai Financial Market General Index (DFM) and the Abu Dhabi Securities Market General Index (ADX) were up 2.44% and 1.60% respectively while the Saudi Tadawul Index (TASI) and the Qatar Exchange Index (DSM) dropped 5.11% and 2.22% respectively. The broad based MSCI GCC Countries Index also fell by 2.93% during this period. Overall traded values increased across the board except for Qatar as geo-political tensions continued to influence its equities market.

In corporate news, the largest IPO in the region since 2014 will take place in November. Emaar Development will be floating 20% of its shares on DFM. Investors (both institution and retail) shall be able to subscribe to the IPO between November 2nd and 13th, 2017. Drake & Scull International announced that Tabarak Investment had injected AED 500m into its capital as part of the capital restructuring program. DSI's price has surged 37% since the beginning of October. In ratings news, S&P affirmed Saudi's status at 'a-/a-2'; projecting a stable outlook for the period 2017-2020.
